

LAUREN ANSLEY | BIO

Based in Charlotte, NC, Lauren Ansley is a stand-up comedian, emcee/host, show producer, speaker and entrepreneur. Her passion to make others laugh and slight southern accent are only overshadowed by her infectious smile and abnormal height of 5'13".

Lauren Ansley launched her own production company to create moments of joy and laughter, to support local businesses and to elevate comedy as an art form. Now in the world of social distancing, Lauren has taken her services virtual, producing quality and creative corporate entertainment and training online.

In or out of a pandemic, Lauren is committed to providing quality comic relief and entertainment that engages employees, boosts morale, and creates memorable moments of joy and laughter.
